AUSTRIAN TROOPS ARE UNABLE TO STOP ITALIANS

On Eastern Front—An Increase in Russian Fire.

BRAZIL IS NOW ABOUT READY

To Take In War Against Germany—Anti-Teuton Meeting In Madrid.

Rio Jaerico, May 28.—The Brazilian chamber today passed the first reading of the government measure revoking Brazil's neutrality in the war between Germany and the United States. The vote was 136 to 3.

Aside from the Austrian-Italian theater, where the Italians are making the spirited efforts to break through toward Trieste, little fighting of consequence is taking place on any battle front.

Artillery duels continue along the Western front. On the Eastern front the Russian artillery fire against the Austrian lines is increasing in intensity, probably presaging the awakening of the Russians from their military lethargy.

The Italians have smashed their way forward on the Carso plateau, taking the village of Giovanni, a scant two miles from Duino. In the vicinity of Jamiano the Italians have captured Austrian trenches and also made gains along the Julian front. Vienna asserts the Italian's attacks were repulsed with the loss of many dead and prisoners.

Action by Brazil, which would place her in the war against Germany, still is awaited. Meanwhile the situation in Spain as a result of Germany's illegal acts, continues to grow in intensity. Resolutions were adopted by a Madrid mass meeting advising a break with Germany.

DEATH ENDS

Life of Mrs. John C. Riley—Had Been Paralyzed Several Years.

After being seriously ill about five days, death ended the suffering of Mrs. America Riley, wife of Mr. John C. Riley, cashier of the Citizens Bank, Wednesday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock.

Mrs. Riley had been paralyzed several years, and the direct cause of her death was uremic poison.

She was born in 1850 and was the daughter of Jefferson and Mary Rowan Bell. Forty-four years ago she was married to John C. Riley.

Besides her husband, she is survived by four sons, Dr. A. B. R. R., W. H., and L. T. Riley, and three daughters, Mrs. W. E. Ellis and Misses Hettie and Ruth Riley. She is also survived by three brothers, Messrs. A. T., S. W. and Jefferson Bell, and two sisters, Mesdames I. P. Harnard and R. C. Hudson.

After brief funeral services at the family residence, conducted by Rev. R. D. Benaett, at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon, her remains were laid to rest in Oakwood cemetery.

SPIES ANNOUNCE SAILING OF U. S. FLOTILLA

Berlin Told Routing of Destroyers Before Vessels Reach Destination.

Washington, May 25.—Four days before the American destroyer flotilla arrived abroad Berlin knew it was on the way and to what port it was going and the day before the vessels steamed into Queenstown German submarines had strewn mines about the harbor entrance.

This startling information, revealing that German spies not only still are at their work in this country, but that they have a swift and sure means of communicating America's war secrets to the fatherland, came to the Navy Department today in a cablegram from Rear Admiral Sims at London.

The Admiral said his information was positive. His dispatch was not made public and for obvious reasons nothing will be given out concerning how the news came into his possession, nor about the precautions which defeated the German plans and enabled the flotilla to speed safely through the mine fields.

Reich Post, May 16.

Immediate publicity was given the salient fact, however, the department making clear that its purpose was to let the people know of the activity and success of Teutonic spies and to emphasize the necessity for absolute secrecy in connection with naval operations or shipping movements.

The destroyers, now aiding in the hunt for submarines in European waters under the direction of Admiral Sims, put into port at Queenstown May 16. How long they were in crossing the Atlantic or from what port they sailed never has been announced, and until word of their arrival came by cable only a few people in the United States even knew of the Government's decision to send warships to Europe. No official would comment tonight on the possible means by which the news was conveyed to Germany. If it did not go from a secret wireless plant, it must have been carried in some code dispatch that the allied cable censors passed as innocent.

CYCLONE MAIM AND KILL--KENTUCKY HIT

Bondurant, 22; Hickman, 5; Dublin, 5; Bardwell, 3; Clinton, 5; Beulah, 1; Fulton county outside of Hickman, 40 (estimated). The list of injured in these eight towns and four counties has grown to nearly ninety.

Property damage, $5,000,000.

Paducah, Ky., May 27.—A telephone message received here tonight from Hickman, Ky., stated that reports from points along the Mississippi river from Tiptonville, Tenn., to within two miles of Hickman indicated that probably fifty people had lost their lives in a tornado which swept along the eastern banks of the river late today. The storm had, to a large extent, blown itself out before reaching Hickman, and the damage there was reported to be small.

Hickman, Ky., May 27.—Kentucky's storm death list stands at twenty-eight at 2 o'clock this morning. Two towns, Bardwell and Ledford, were destroyed. At Ledford nine persons were killed, at Bondurant, six near Hickman thirteen.

Fifty to Seventy Dead.

Mattoon, Ill., May 26.—Between fifty and seventy persons were killed and more than 300 were injured when a tornado struck Mattoon late today. The entire business section of the town is wiped out and upward of 2,000 are homeless.

The storm, traveling from east to west, destroyed practically the entire northern half of the town, leaving no building standing in a section several blocks in width.

A lumber yard directly in the path of the tornado contributed largely to the damage. Flying planks struck a number of pedestrians who had been unable to find shelter, and other pieces of timber were hurled for miles around the countryside, one being discovered sticking through the side of a farmer's house.

Other Towns Hit.

While the principal force of the storm struck Mattoon, other sections of Illinois were visited by vagrant tornadoes, which left death and destruction as they twisted through a rich farming territory. Casualties were reported as follows:

Westervelt, five dead, twenty-one injured, three of whom will die. Manhattan, one dead, six injured. Joliet, two injured. Ellwood, four injured; Modesta, one killed, nine fatally hurt.

Pearl, one fatally injured, four hurt.

Early reports of property losses indicated that serious damage had been done to many towns. Substantial factories were blown to splinters in Mattoon. Joliet estimated $500,000 damage in Will county alone.

Hail followed the wind in many places, beating growing crops to the ground.

Kentucky Dead May Be 28.

Memphis, Tenn., May 27.—Twenty-three persons are believed to be dead in Kentucky as the result of a tornado's visit to seven towns in that State. Clinton and Hardwell are said to have been practically wiped off the map, while Hickman and surrounding territory is believed to have borne the brunt of the storm. Twenty persons are reported to be dead in and about Hickman. Clinton and Hardwell are in Carlisle county.

Three persons are reported to be dead at Dublin, Graves county, which adjoins Carlisle. Both counties are on the Mississippi river. Owing to the fact that telegraph and telephone connections with the stricken area are not in working order, accounts received here are meagre.

Bondurant and Ledford, Ky., also suffered storm damage.

Wichita, Kan., May 25.—A series of tornadoes in Harvey and Sedgewick counties late today entailed a loss of thirty lives and property damage of many thousands of dollars.

Andale, a village of less than 300 inhabitants, virtually was wiped out by the storm, which demolished many buildings there and reduced the population by eighteen.

Between Andale and Newton, a path from a quarter to a half mile wide was swept bare by the twister, many substantial residences and barns in one of the richest farming sections of the State being torn to splinters. Nine persons were killed near Sedgewick. Three others met death southwest of Newton.

Hail followed the tornadoes and worked great damage to crops.

Of the fifty injured the condition of at least six tonight appeared hopeless.

Rescuers fear other dead will be found among the debris.

Houses leveled.

The storm approached from the southwest and dropped to the ground two miles before reaching Andale, leveling houses, trees and fields in its path.

A warning cry of a man who kept the rear seat the occupants of the general store scurrying into the basement just as the twister struck the building, cutting it in half and setting the roof upon the floor. A dozen lives were saved in the store by prompt lying down in the cellar.

PASTOR'S PAY IS STOLEN FROM ICE CREAM FREEZER

Bromley, Ky., May 25.—Funds of the Bromley Christian church, amounting to $135, hidden in an ice cream freezer in a cupboard, were stolen from the home of Henry Habberle, treasurer, by burglars who broke into the place. Other money lying on a shelf was undisturbed when Mrs. Habberle, who had left the house, returned to find the place ransacked. The money included $100 of the salary of the Rev. Louis Kohler, pastor.

$15,000 FOR POULTRY.

Mr. W. E. Ellis, of the firm of W. E. Ellis & Bro., reports that in the past two weeks they have shipped four carloads of live poultry, which amounts, in dollars and cents, to something like $15,000. From this it will be seen that the poultry business has become a factor in the commercial life of this country, and people on the farm are paying more attention to the raising of chickens, etc.

$200,000 IN TOBACCO IS LOST IN FIRE

Flames, Following Severe Storm Destroys Farmers' Tobacco Warehouse.

Tobacco awaiting export shipment, valued at $200,000, was destroyed Sunday morning at 3:30 o'clock when the Farmers' Tobacco Warehouse, covering a quarter of a block at the northwest corner of Tenth and Main streets, burned, says the Louisville Herald. The total loss, including the building, office fixtures and equipment of half a dozen brokers, will reach a quarter of a million.

The origin of the fire has not been definitely determined. Following fifteen minutes after a big electrical storm, the theory has been advanced that the place was struck by lightning.

The structure, two stories high in the front and three in the rear, was ablaze when the first alarm was sounded. The big warehouse burst sounded. The big warehouse burst preceding dawn the city was lighted up for blocks.

Distress Whistles Sounded.

So suddenly did the flames burst forth that some of the first calls received by the fire department came from points two miles from the scene of the fire. Five minutes before anyone on Main street had sounded an alarm, a bedlam of noise from distress whistles of locomotives in every section of the city aroused citizens from sleep. Even before the blaze was located, every fire company in the city was ordered by the operator at the fire tower to be in readiness.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER.

Mrs. J. W. Austin and son, Heber, entertained at dinner Sunday at their home in Beaver Dam. Those present were: Mr. P. P. Walker, Mrs. James R. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Maddox, Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Austin, Misses Norine Coleman, Ruby Taylor, Mayme Austin, Mabel Murray, and Prof. Clifford Maddox.

76 ARE KILLED, 175 INJURED IN AIR RAID

German Attack On Dover Deadliest Made In War.

SIXTY BOMBS ARE DROPPED

Women and Children Waiting In Line To Buy Potatoes Chief Victims.

A Town on the Southeast Coast of England, May 26 (via London).—Women and children who had stood for hours in a long line in the busiest street here waiting to purchase potatoes, were the principal victims of the German airplane raid last evening. Intent only on holding their places in the line, the women and children had little warning of the raid, and were easy victims of the air vultures, who dropped their deadly bombs indiscriminately. The raid, which claimed the lives of seventy-six persons and caused injuries to 175 others, proved more deadly than any raid which the Zeppelins have made on England since the beginning of the war.

Flying so high that they looked like a flock of ducks, the raiders rained dozens of bombs on the busiest block of the main thoroughfare, which was choked with shoppers of every age and sex.

A correspondent of the Associated Press visited the destroyed district today. He found a grocery store that had collapsed and was told by the grocer, who lost two members of his family, that ten dead persons were found in the debris of the building. A dozen more were killed and three score or more were injured by flying glass and bricks and shrapnel-like fragments which were scattered far and wide by the bursting bombs.

Many persons lost their lives on a narrow stair-like passageway between two buildings on this street when a bomb burst overhead, the concussion killing them. All the victims in this part of the town were struck down within a radius of 200 yards.

THROWN FROM MULE And Arm Broken in Two Places—Wyman Black Sustains Serious Injury.

Wyman, the seven-year-old son of Milton Black, who lives about four miles from town on the Litchfield road, was thrown from a mule Thursday evening about 6 o'clock and sustained a double fracture of the left arm. It having been broken near the shoulder and at the elbow, and the elbow joint split.

The lad was carried to Owensboro Thursday night, and Friday morning about eight o'clock Dr. J. J. Hoover, at the City Hospital there set it. At last report the boy was getting along fine and is doing as well as could be expected.

Apparently frightened at the automobile of M. T. Likens, of this city, who had shut his engine down before coming to the boy, the mule whirled and began bucking, unseating him with the above result.

Mr. Likens saw the boy was hurt, and suggested he get in his automobile and come to Hartford to a doctor, but an older brother said he would take him home and his father would call a doctor.

The animal that threw the boy was thought to be the gentlest on the place, and the boys had been riding it for a long time.

There is a big advantage in having cows fresher in the fall. They give more milk and this milk is worth more money.

NEGRO BURNED AT THE STAKE

For Murder of Little Antoinette Rappal Near Memphis.

BODY FIRST SOAKED IN OIL

Swung to Limb and Then Fired
By Infuriated Tennessee
Mob.

Memphis, Tenn.—Ell Persons, a negro, confessed murderer of Antoinette Rappal several weeks ago, was burned to death near the scene of crime at 9 o'clock Tuesday, May 22. A mob estimated at from 2,000 to 3,000 saw the death of the negro.

The negro was taken from the train near Potts Camp, Miss.

In preparation for burning the body was soaked in oil, and afterward suspended in midair from the limb of a nearby tree. A torch was then applied and the body burned fiercely until the scorched flesh of the negro fell to the ground.

Persons is said to have repeated his confession that he killed the child, and implicated two other negroes. Members of the mob immediately set out in pursuit of them.

When all was in readiness Mrs. Rappal, mother of the dead girl, was taken to the bridge where the prisoner was held and identified him. In a short speech to the mob she declared she wished Persons to suffer the tortures he dealt to his victim.

TAKING ISSUE WITH LOMBROSO.

It is a curious fact—one at variance with the doctrine of heredity but borne out by police records—that the children of crooks of all classes rarely turn out to be crooks themselves. Deeper study of the subject might reveal that they are possessed of the criminal instincts, but that the tragically close example of the punishment and wretchedness that attend a criminal career has been a terrifying deterrent. The fact, at any rate, remains. The "rogues' galleries" of Scotland Yard, New York and Chicago may be studied in vain for the photographs of a father and a son.

Criminals are ever alert to keep their children from adopting similar lives. The rage of old, ugly Mother Mandelbaum, the famous receiver of stolen goods, was frightful when she found that her daughter, whom she had been at untold expense to educate, had secretly married "Sammy, the Jew" (Kochler), a thief with whom the old criminal had long traded. She disinherited the girl and a flock of relatives were the beneficiaries of her ill-gotten money. In her Chatham Square headquarters Mother Mandelbaum maintained a room where thieves could smoke and drink, but she refused with a bronze lamp a pick-pocket who attempted one night to invade the private parlor where she was overseeing her daughter's French studies. —[Exchange.]

THE PHILIPPINE COAST LINE.

Deep sea sailors need to laugh at their brother mariners of the coastwise trade and refer to them as men who "like to go to sea when they could get home to dinner." This globe would have little point in the Philippines, the coast line of which has been found to measure more than 11,000 miles—to be exact, 11,511 statute miles. In the Philippines there is one mile of coast to every ten miles of area, the total area of the island being 115,026 square statute miles. These figures are interesting when it is considered that the ratio in the United States have reference to the coast line of the main part of the country, including islands lying near the coast, but not including noncontiguous territory, such as Alaska and Porto Rico. The coast line of the United States so measured, with what the experts call "three mile steps," is 13,026 statute miles, less than 2,000 miles in excess of the coast line of our eastern possession. —[New York Tribune.]

WRECKAGE FOUND AFTER YEARS

Benton Harbor, Mich.—Wreckage from the ill-fated steamer Chicora, which sank in Lake Michigan twenty-two years ago, was brought into this port recently by the tug Herbert. A wash basin and an electric light fixture, both stamped "Chicora," were, identified by Capt. J. A. Simons and Capt. Russell of the Graham & Morton fleet as belonging to the Chicora. Later an inch cable was pulled to the surface.

A buoy has been placed to mark the spot and lake veterans feel certain the wreckage, which lies in about thirty-five fathoms of water has at last been located.

CONVICTS SHOW LOYALTY.

Mary in Prison Waiting to Enlist and Fight.

Walla Walla, Wash.—E. B. Dudley, President of the Prisoners' Relief Society, a national organization, speaking to convicts in the State prison the other day, asked:

"How many of you would go to war in order to regain your liberty?"

Not a man replied.

"How many of you would be willing to fight for your country if you could do so as free men, as volunteers?"

Every able-bodied man of the 700 in the auditorium stood up.

"That's the spirit," said Mr. Dudley. "I'm proud of you as men."

Mr. Dudley says he has found even in other prisons of the West feeling the same. They are willing to fight for Uncle Sam, but not from selfish motives of regaining freedom, he says.

SEVEN KILLED IN WRECK

Work Train Collided With B. & O. Freight Near Wallace, W. Va.

Clarksburg, W. Va.—Seven men are known to have been killed and a number injured in a wreck on the short line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad connecting Clarksburg and New Martinsville last week. According to reports received here from Wallace, the town nearest the wreck, a work train running backward collided with a freight train on a curve. The heavy engine of the freight plowed through the cars, reducing them to splinters and killing five workmen outright. Two others, the report said, died after being taken out of the wreckage. A relief train was made up and the injured are being brought here.

U. S. HAS NO QUARREL WITH GERMAN PEOPLE

President Wilson Restates Position in Letter to Hefflin—War With Autocracy.

Washington, D. C.—No nation that respected itself or the rights of humanity could longer have borne the overwhelming wrongs that Germany inflicted upon the United States, President Wilson declared in a letter re-stating the reasons for this nation's entrance into the war written to Representative Hefflin of Alabama and made public at the White House.

Mr. Hefflin had written to the President, saying some of his recent utterances on the war apparently had caused confusion over the issue with Germany. In restating his position the President again made clear that the United States has no quarrel with the German people but with an autocracy "which acts upon purposes to which the German people have never consented." The letter follows:

"It is incomprehensible to me how any frank or honest person could doubt or question my position with regard to the war and its objects. I have again and again stated the very serious and long-continued wrongs which the Imperial German government has perpetrated against the commerce and the citizens of the United States. The list is long and overwhelming. No nation that respected itself or the right of humanity could have borne those wrongs any longer.

"Our objects in going into the war have been stated with equal clearness. The whole of the conception of our fellow countrymen with regard to the outcome of the war and the terms of settlement, I set forth with the utmost explicitness in an address to the Senate of the United States on the 22d of January last. Again in my message to Congress on the 2d of April last those objects were stated in unmistakable terms.

"No Hate in Our Hearts."
"I can conceive no purpose in seeking to belaud this matter, except the purpose of weakening the hands of the government and making the part which the United States is to play in the great struggle for a human liberty an inefficient and hesitating part. We have entered the war for our own objects, clearly stated, and shall forget neither the reasons nor the objects.

"There is no hate in our hearts for the German people, but there is a resolve which cannot be shaken even by misrepresentation to overcome the pretensions of the autocratic government which acts upon purposes to which the German people have never consented."

Endurance—the Supreme Tire Quality

United States Tires have proved that they have that supreme quality, —that miles are packed into their structure the way endurance is packed into steel.

A vast number of the motoring public know that by experience,

—and they have answered in the only way that the buying public can answer,

—by giving United States Tires tremendous sales increases,

WAR SPIRIT RAMPANT IN CARLISLE'S PEOPLE

Men, Boys and Girls, Too, Drill and Women Work Hard

Carlisle, Pa.—This city claims the distinction of being one of the "best prepared" small cities in America. In an agricultural district and given over to educational institutions and light manufacturing, Carlisle has at least 1,500 young men and 1,200 girls and women who are trained to some form of military work or who are contributing to Red Cross, War Relief and Navy League activities. In addition, there is hardly a garden in the town that is not devoted to food production.

The local military company, Company G, Eight Regiment, N. G. P., and regimental band will soon have a total of 175 members; Dickinson College has been drilling 175 men for two months. Dickinson Law has been drilling 85 men, Conway Hall includes 80 in her squads, Indian School has 450 finely drilled youths, the High School boys number 75 and the Boy Scouts 40. In addition, there are between 400 and 500 men, young and middle aged men, among whom are included the Spanish-American and El Paso veterans, who are well drilled to arms.

The local Red Cross, which has absorbed the War Relief organization, now numbers 500, and is aggressively active. The Navy League numbers about 200, and the Indian girls, who drill with rifles, and the High School girls, who are taking nurses courses aggregate 450. The town has a large city hospital, finely equipped and ranked with the best, big hospitals in Pennsylvania, and, with the large Indian Hospital and its pavilions, could accommodate hundreds of patients on short notice, with the services of a staff of surgeons of wide experience.

The local Chamber of Commerce has perfected the organization of a local defense committee of 100, fully departmentalized. Arrangements have been made whereby nearly all the local industrial plants could devote their activities to the production of war supplies.

PADEREWSKI IN TEARS

Moved by Poland's Wrongs, He Says
Wilson Has Thrilled Him.

Ignaz Paderewski wept at the recital of Poland's wrongs at a meeting in the Horace Mann Auditorium at Columbia University recently, and himself made an address on "Poland and Polish Relief Work."

Mme. Sembrich and Mme. Paderewski were in the audience. Paderewski paid President Wilson a glowing compliment for his speech in behalf of Polish liberty. He said:

"I am not an orator by profession, but in these days of radical changes, when priest becomes sharpshooter, and when ancient institutions of learning are shelled as if they were vulgar forts, it seems pardonable for a musician to become a lecturer. "Those words that great and noble man, your President, said the other day thrilled every Pole so that there is not one now living who would not give his heart's blood for the Stars and Stripes, the true symbol of liberty and justice on earth. Poland has fought a hundred wars, but not one for conquest; she has fought in defense of liberty, of Christianity, of justice." —[New York Times.]

WAITE GOES TO HIS DEATH WITH SMILE

Confessed Murderer Makes No Protest and Refuses to Leave Farewell Message.

Ossining, N. Y., May 24.—Dr. Arthur Waite was executed at Sing Sing Prison at 11:40 o'clock tonight for the murder of his father-in-law, John E. Peck, at Grand Rapids, Mich.

The young dentist walked calmly and with a firm step from his cell to the death chamber, accompanied by the Rev. A. N. Peterson, Protestant chaplain of the prison. He faltered, however, as he neared the electric chair, but recovered quickly and smilingly nodded to the group of physicians, prison officials and others who had assembled as witnesses.

Waite submitted quietly to the ordeal of being strapped into the chair and went to his death without a word of protest or good-bye. Three shocks were administered within four minutes.

The two hours before his death Waite spent in prayer with his spiritual adviser. Just before 11 o'clock the clergyman asked the condemned man if there was any one to whom he wished to send a message of farewell.

No Word of Farewell.
"No, thank you, doctor," Waite replied with a smile. "There really is no one I know to whom I care to send a farewell message."

"Not even to your mother?" queried Mr. Peterson.

"No sir, to no one," was the answer.

The chaplain declared that Waite, who confessed that he had poisoned his wealthy father-in-law in the expectation that his wife would obtain a large share of the wealthy Mr. Peck's estate, seemed to look upon his approaching doom as a wonderful adventure.

RAPS GILMORE, WHO URGES WHISKY BE GIVEN SOLDIERS

Washington, D. C.—Representative John G. Cooper, of Ohio, prohibition advocate, created a sensation in the House of Representatives by reading a letter from Thomas M. Gilmore, of Louisville, president of the Model License League, urging that American soldiers should be given the alcohol treatment for the nerves before they go into action.

Here are some of the paragraphs from Gilmore's letter which Cooper read to the House and which elicited the keen interest of that body.

"The man who rushes a rapid fire gun should be given the relief from terror that alcohol imparts.

"I believe that a good drink to each soldier before a charge will insure that steadiness of nerve that wins battles.

"I believe that the soldier will need wine, beer and whisky in and out of the trenches in moderation."

Cooper after having had Gilmore's letter read to the House, made a brief speech.

"What a reflection it is on Gen. Pershing and the brave young Americans who are to fight under him in France to say they must have their nerves steadied by alcohol before they can fight like brave men," said Cooper, with withering sarcasm. "what a travesty it is on the patriotism and bravery of the American soldier boys for Gilmore to make the statement that in order to be brave they must be filled with whisky."

Cooper lobtained the floor on a question of personal privilege.

BEWARE OF THE BUG.

"This is the year," said John Bigsplash, "to raise great crops of everything. Most farmers do not earn their hash; I'll show them how it's done, by jing."

So many dollars out he paid for spuds to plant a half his land, and figured when the crop was made he'd have a fortune in each hand. He plowed his land, put in his crop and thought the job was surely done; up came the weeds with skip and hop, a million new ones with each sun. And with the weeds the bugs came, too, as fast as they could fly or crawl; John had so many things to do he didn't get to spray at all. Came time potatoes should be dug, he found but few, and they were small; the villainous potato bug had eaten taters, tops and all. John Bigsplash said, "I'll get some hens and raise at least a thousand chicks." He filled his yards with coops and pens, and tried all sorts of fancy tricks. But he forgot gape worms and lice, and soon his chicks began to fade; John's fortune vanished in a trice, lost full three months before 'twas made. He fussed and splurged with growl and groan, but still his spindly chickens died; one wry-tailed rooster, lorn and lone, saw frost fall on the countryside.

Now who this truthful tale shall read, give heed to each wise word thereof: His end is pitiful indeed who at the little things dares scoff. The swarming bugs, the creeping worms, the tiny mites he cannot see, the microscopic beast that squirms between the feathers of the flea—these are the things that spoil the crops and do the farmer deadly hurt; if once his war on them he stops, they'll leave him nothing but his shirt.—[Southern Agriculturist.

SMOKE BOMBS USED TO PROTECT SHIPS IN WAR ZONE

New York.—Smoke bombs designed to protect merchant vessels from submarine attacks, are now being used on vessels passing through the war zone, according to information brought to an American port recently on a French ship. The bombs are thrown by hand and on striking the water ignite and throw out a dense cloud of black vapor, which hangs low over the water like fog. They will burn for more than an hour and are said to be effective in screening the movements of a vessel in danger of attack.

MORE GUARDSMEN WILL BE REQUIRED

Kentucky and Indiana Will Be Called On For Many Additional Units.

Washington, D. C.—Organization of scores of new regiments of national guard artillery, engineers, signal troops and cavalry will be undertaken soon to supply the tactical formations necessary for the establishment of the sixteen divisions of the guard provided for in the War Department's plans.

In addition to these troops, immediately after the existing State soldiers have been drafted into the Federal service, there must be organized divisional headquarters, detachments, supply, ammunition and medical trains, heavy field artillery and signal battalions, an aero service, two cavalry divisions and many new coast artillery units and reserves.

The various States will be called on to furnish additional units. Kentucky must under this plan furnish for the Sixteenth division one regiment infantry, one regiment field artillery, one battalion engineers, one field battalion (less one company), signal corps. Indiana will furnish for this division two regiments infantry, one regiment cavalry, two regiments (less one battalion) field artillery.

For the Seventeenth division Kentucky will furnish one regiment infantry, one regiment field artillery, one battalion engineers, one field battalion signal corps (less one company), and Indiana, two regiments infantry, one regiment cavalry, one regiment field artillery, one regiment field artillery (less one battalion), one battalion of engineers.

TOWN FOREWARNED, BANK ROBBER KILLED

Ardmore, Okla.—As the result of an attempt by three men to rob the First State Bank at Muskogee, Okla., Thursday, one of the robbers was shot to death in the bank by the cashier and the other two were wounded probably fatally. A. H. Palmer, the cashier, received advice this morning that the robbers were headed toward Muskogee. He distributed arms and ammunition among local merchants and when the men appeared everything was in readiness for them.

FARMER AND WIFE SLAIN BY NEIGHBOR

Lawrence Rhinehart and Wife Die When Louis Zinsmeister Opens Fire.

Lawrence Rhinehart, 62, a farmer living on the Cane Run road, and his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Rhinehart, 43, were shot and killed late yesterday afternoon by Louis Zinsmeister, 31, owner of an adjoining farm. The farms are three miles from the city limits, says Friday's Louisville Herald.

The shooting grew out of a boundary line quarrel, a small strip of land between the two places causing enmity between the neighbors. Rhinehart had ordered Zinsmeister off the disputed tract.

Farmer Shot in Back.

Mrs. Rhinehart was shot once in the right breast and lived only a few minutes. The aged man seeing his aged wife fall, fled but was pursued by Zinsmeister who fired two shots into the victim's back. Rhinehart fell in a lane a few yards from the Cane Run road. He died instantly.

The killing was witnessed by several persons and caused widespread excitement in the neighborhood. Within a short time many neighbors were looking for the slayer who had disappeared. About 6 o'clock last night Zinsmeister in an automobile driven by his father-in-law, J. Tross, an employee of the Louisville Water Company, stopped Deputy Sheriff Hartledge on Eighteenth street and surrendered to him. He was locked up at the county jail on two charges of murder.

CAFES ARE WARNED NOT TO SELL DRINKS TO SOLDIERS

New York.—Proprietors of hotels, cabarets and all liquor dealers in this city were warned by B. Snowden Marshall, Federal District Attorney, that the law forbidding sale of intoxicating liquors, including beer, alcohol or wine to any officer or member of the military forces in uniform, became effective May 18, the day it was approved and will be rigidly enforced.

Some liquor sellers interpreted the law, it was said, as applying to officers and men of the army, and have not refused to sell to officers and men of the navy. Others believed the law would not be operative before June 5, registration day.

The District Attorney's warning was issued after telephone communication with the Washington authorities.

WOMAN'S THROAT CUT; MURDER IS VERDICT

Bully Found in Creek—Drove Away With Man From Hotel at Mobile.

Mobile, Ala.—The young woman whose body, with her throat cut, was found Thursday in Chickasawogee creek, near Mobile, was identified as that of Mrs. R. C. Hess, of Hess, of Jacksonville, Fla.

Identification was made by the clerk of a hotel here, where the woman had apartments until last Monday morning.

The clerk told the police that Mrs. Hess left the hotel in an automobile in company with a man he did not know. The couple were quarrelling, the clerk said.

The Coroner, after investigation, returned a verdict of murder. There was a knife wound in the woman's neck and blood stains on her waist. She was fashionably attired. The police are searching for the negro chauffeur who drove the couple away from the hotel.

WHO'S ABSURD?

The Republican referred to what it calls "the absurdity" of our article on "Incidentals." It says the typewriters were bought "to provide a plain and legible record" and "to save the county money in the economy of book space." Well, we have been fortunate enough to always have clerks that can write, and usually the deputies write legibly. Then the paper, how economical and thoughtful of the court. The record books are paid for by the State, not the county, and besides there is not enough saved in books to pay the repairs on the typewriters which the county has been paying. If it's such a saving, it is remarkable that the court has not bought a couple for the Circuit Clerk and one for the County Judge.

Then that safe, My! my! It says the assessment costs the county $1,000 and the Sheriff's book $200. You know, or ought to know, the county pays only half this expense; and besides, brother, don't you know the assessment lists and books are kept in the County Clerk's and not the Sheriff's office? And do you not know also these records are not kept in the safe and could not be so kept? The Sheriff's tax books are kept in his office, but they could not be put in a safe three times as large as the one purchased by the court. We'll bet two bits to a "three-for" that you can't put the tax book of Simmons precinct in that safe, much less the other thirty three in the county. We are glad you have at last decided to defend the Fiscal Court, and we hope you will keep it up until the election. The voters will, by that time, be prepared to distinguish between necessities and luxuries for which their money has been spent; and whether it was all for the benefit of the county, or a good part for the benefit of Republican officeholders.

If the Republican propose to explain all the Fiscal Court economies (1) with the same intelligence and effort that it did the purchase of typewriters and safe, its editor will have plenty of time to "go a fishing."

EFFECT OF BIG LOAN.

The fact that the United States is lending seven billion dollars to the Allies does not mean so much money, or in fact any part of it, will be sent abroad or taken out of the channels of trade in this country. The Secretary of the Treasury has given or will give checks totalling this amount which will be placed in American banks to the credit of the borrowing nations, England, France and Italy. These governments will buy here in the United States supplies of various kinds, giving checks for same against these deposits until they are exhausted.

To raise the funds this government is selling bonds on which three and one-half per cent. interest is paid—exactly the same as charged the borrowing nations on the loan.

The effect is the same as if the United States should borrow directly from banks, corporations, firms and individuals, this amount of money and pay it over to the American manufacturers and producers in exchange for supplies, and then should sell these supplies to the allies on credit, taking their bonds as security. So that one class of our people furnish the money to pay another class for their products, the government superintends the deal, protects the creditors (purchasers of bonds) by its own pledge, and protects itself by holding the bonds of the nations that buy our stuff.

Wm. Henderson, ex-Circuit Clerk of Ballard county, and now one of the editors of the Ballard Yeoman, at Wickliffe, has announced for County Judge of Ballard. He is a seasoned campaigner, an all-round good fellow, and we venture the prediction that the man who beats him will win the nomination. Being a fellow pencil pusher, we naturally are "legging" for Bill.

George Bingham, better known as "Bunk Botts," of Hogwallow fame, is quarantined at his home in Mayfield with smallpox. We wonder if "Bunk" contracted the malady while attending church at Day Hill or enjoying an entertainment at the Wild Onion schoolhouse, as we have not read recently where any of the inhabitants of the "Wallow" had the disease.

Seems as if our Kentucky boys who are doing guard duty for the railroads are having a hard time keeping out of the way of trains. Most every day we see in the dispatches where some guardsman has been killed or injured by being struck by a train. Must be that in patrolling the tracks they become careless.

"Modern Fiscal Court" did you say, Brother Thomas? Not yet. Some, like Jefferson, buy automobiles for the Magistrates to ride around in. Now you are putting high ideas in our heads. Really, there is a lot of time wasted in going about in buggies and on horses, and the purchase of eight autos would be another progressive and economical transaction.

A Missouri editor refuses to publish the obituaries of those who do not take his paper because he considers those who do not take their county paper as dead ones, anyway. All of which is true, but not in Ohio county, Kentucky, because nearly all of our people take their county paper, and those that don't will eventually. So why not now?

No wonder the distillers and brewers grow fat if what they claim now is true; and that is the by-product from the grain and cereals used produced much fat and growth as the product itself would before it goes into the still or brewery. We would call this doing double duty. Of course everybody believes it.

Draft Day, June 5, is not to be celebrated as an ordinary holiday, but in a serious spirit. Each community is asked to make its celebration a public expression of willingness to give the services of its sons to the country.

The forty-acre centerfield of the noted Churchill Downs at Louisville is to be planted in potatoes, and when the crop is harvested, it is to be placed at the disposal of the Government without profit to the Jockey Club.

Dr. Amos Squire, Sing Sing prison physician, said that Dr. Waite, who was executed there last week had more nerve than any man he ever saw. Takes a man with nerve to commit the crime for which he was convicted.

J. Ogden Armour, the Chicago packer, showed his patriotism last week by buying $1,000,000 worth of Liberty Loan Bonds. But he is no more patriotic than the wage earner who buys one $50 bond!

Marriage license was issued in Louisville recently to Steve A. Czynski and Veronica Czynski. We are inclined to believe this is pronounced "Sy-sus-ski." Got you, Steve? "Whew-ski!"

Next Tuesday, June 5, is registration day for all those who come between the ages of 21 and 31, under the Selective Draft Act. Uncle Sam says so—and it must be, so get in line, boys!

White or black, able-bodied or not—if you are between the ages of 21 and 31, you MUST register next Tuesday, June 5. Who said so? Why, your Uncle Sam.

One J. B. Corn cannot get into the army in anyway—nor into one of Uncle Sam's boys while in uniform, as it is a heavy penalty to sell a soldier liquor.

A Christian county farmer recently sold 109 head of beef cattle for $12,000. Surely the farmer has at last come into his own.

Yes, when the tax goes on tobacco the plug will be a little thinner, the package smaller, the cigar shorter and the cigarette lighter.

The farmer who expresses fear of "going broke" from eating his own products at present prices may be classed as a pessimist.

Seven million have been killed and 45,000,000 casualties have been the result of the war thus far, and the end is not yet.

If you are between 21 and 31 you MUST register next Tuesday. Remember, it is your Uncle Sam that says so.

"Ned and earn bread"—not so bad after all, and it will certainly stick to your ribs.

There has been a "hot time in the old town" of Atlanta and Lexington recently.

BEES SWARMED, BUT DIDN'T LEAVE HOME

Henry Pirtle, on Route 1, had a hive of bees to swarm last week, and instead of rising and leaving, as they generally do, they found a hole in the side of his residence, which is brick, and went therein. At last report they were between the floor of the upper story and the ceiling of the lower part of the house and seem to be well satisfied.

OUR EXCHANGES.

"Joe Rob" the eagle that has been in the possession of Job Rogers the past three years died last Saturday. Joy kept the eagle in a large, net wire enclosure in the back yard at his home in Main Cross street, where many hundreds of people came to view the bird, selected as the emblem of America. Whether the bird had lived out its allotted time or died from the effects of the confinement is not known; all we know is that "Joe Rob" is no more, and his admirers regret that the proud bird is no longer to be seen on his accustomed perch.—[Leitchfield Gazette.]

W. A. (Sandy) Mahoney, City Marshal of New Haven, and candidate for Jailer for Nelson county, some days ago stepped on a catfish that was lying upon the ground, the fin of the fish penetrated his foot and caused a small wound, to which slight attention was paid at the time. Later blood poisoning developed and he was rushed to Louisville where a fight is being made to save the foot. It may be that amputation will be necessary to save his life.—[Kentucky Standard.]

Clarence Holtschew, farmer, fruit grower and carpenter, who lives on the topmost summit of the "Mountain Top," was here Saturday and Sunday. Clarence shines as a carpenter. When he puts a roof on a house, the women always set their water barrels on the inside, for there is where all the water goes. Mr. Charlie Shoptaw, who killed the "hoop" snake, also lives on the "Mountain Top," and is some carpenter himself. And that great dog, with that Russlanized name, "Pffoshovshivetsky," is about the huskiest dog in Bullitt county, chasing groundhogs and squirrels and treeing snakes for Shoptaw to kill.—[Bullitt County News.]

Work on the foundation of the Jefferson Davis Obelisk at Fairview is progressing as rapidly as labor, never before so scarce, can be secured. Excavation has been completed and the laying of the concrete foundation begun. It is said that men and boys from fifteen years up can secure employment there at good prices. The work has put more ready money into circulation at Fairview than that community has seen for a long time.—[Todd County Times.]

A mare belonging to Sid Shums, of the Holy Cross section, recently foaled twin colts, one of them a horse colt and the other a mule colt. Both are living and are apparently as healthy as if they were full brothers. The information was given the Enterprise by C. A. Blandford, whose reputation for veracity is above reproach.—[Lebanon Enterprise.]

Twenty-nine years ago Tom Tugle found a terrapin in the Casey's creek neighborhood, ten miles southeast of Cadiz. He carved the date on the back of the "beast" and turned it loose. Last May, a year ago, he found it again and recognized it from the inscription. Last Thursday it was found again by Mrs. Otis Rascoe, of Roaring Spring district, about three hundred yards from where it was found last year.—[Cadiz Record.]

Esq. W. L. Parker, who has raised pure bronze turkeys for many years, is puzzled over a recent hatch of 15 young turkeys, 7 of them yellow. He says there has been no chance for a cross, as there are no yellow turkeys within one and a half miles of his place.—[Hopkinsville Kentuckian.]

Editor Hartford Herald, Dear Editor:—Enclosed you will find check for $2.00; please accept for dues on my paper and renewal for the next year ending in 1918, as we cannot be without the Hartford news, as dear old Hartford was our home for 27 years, and it certainly does cling to our minds as a dear home town. Wishing Hartford and everybody in it success, I am a faithful reader of The Herald.

GIRL IS WAR BRIDE
Owensboro, Ky., May 24.—Miss Helen Vick, pretty society girl, is Owensboro's first war bride. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Immediately following the marriage ceremony Mr. Furbach left for New York, where he boarded the steamer Mongolia and sailed for France with the Army Medical corps. His bride will join him in France this summer. She is studying at the School of Physical Science in Chicago.

While boring a well in the oil fields, a few miles out of town, last week a strong flow of dry gas was struck at a depth of about 1,200 feet. The flow was sufficiently strong to blow several feet above the ground any light object that was placed in the mouth of it. We got our information from a party who is employed at the fields, and he says it is "some" flow of gas.

The large American flag that was hoisted on the tower of the court house a few weeks ago, has been whipped, as Col. Roosevelt would say, to a frazzle, and in a short time there will be nothing of it left. We should have Old Glory floating from the tower of our capitol, and if we

The Last Words of Funston

—OR—

"HOW DELIGHTFUL IT IS!"

BY HENRY POLK LOWENSTEIN

How delightful it is to do one's duty well;
How delightful it is in the House of God to dwell.

How delightful it is, like Sheridan on his ride,
With a heart full of hope, to swim to the Other side.

How delightful it is, at Country's call,
To put on the armor and fight for all.

How delightful it is, in foreign land,
To uphold the flag and for Justice stand.

How delightful it is to slip out of the sod,
And on the wings of music to fly to God.

Listening to the orchestra playing a beautiful waltz in the hotel where he was stopping in San Antonio, Texas, General Funston, speaking to a little girl nearby, said "How delightful it is!" and then expired, these being his last words.

SUNDAY ATTACKS

WILSON IN SERMON

Government "Afraid of Politics,"

He Says, in Demanding Federal Prohibition.

Billy Sunday took a shot at Washington, from the White House down, during an interpolated attack upon "Booze" in one of his sermons.

"The Government has no more right to let the States individually settle the whiskey question than it would have had to let them settle the slavery question," he exclaimed. "When envoys from the Confederacy came to Abraham Lincoln and told him that there could be peace within forty-eight hours if he would accept their offer of allowing each State to decide for itself whether or not its citizens should hold slaves, Lincoln said: 'No! By the Eternal God, the United States Government will take all or none!'"

"And that's what the Government would say now about the abolition of the filthy liquor business if it wasn't for dirty, rotten politics. They're afraid, from the White House down, of politics, and they know what I say is true!"

"I'm for the Government to the last ditch when it's right, but when it's wrong I'm dead against it!"

Whether the audience was shocked by Billy's daring to speak so plainly or whether it disagreed with his declaration could not be told. But it was noticeable that while every other point he made was warmly applauded by his audience of 16,000, the sentence about the White House was received in dead silence. But Billy didn't care about that. He meant every syllable he said and was ready to stand by it. He believes prohibition never had such a chance as it has now.

The evangelist had another successful day. One thousand and fifty trail hikers came to the front at night and 366 in the afternoon, a total of 1,416 for the day. Among the night converts were many Italians, bearing the flag of our ally, from the Jefferson Park Italian M. E. Church. A tiny boy and a tiny girl handed Billy a bouquet for his wife, who is in the Audubon Sanitarium convalescing from an operation performed last Saturday. Mrs. Sunday was reported as well on the way to recovery. Her daughter, Mrs. Mark Haines, arrived from the West and spent most of the day with her.

One of the most impressive conversions seen at the Tabernacle was that of a former college professor who, drunk and dirty, hit the trail last week. Last night he appeared, clean, well dressed, sober and shaven—a marvelously changed man. Billy congratulated him and so did a score of others. "I'm praying for you, old scout; stick to it!" Billy told him.

Another "souse" went up the trail in the afternoon, but said definitely to Billy, "Now I'm goin' out and get another beer!" "You've had all you need already," the evangelist told him. The man returned last night bearing a still heavier load. But Billy shook his hand and wished him luck.

In his talk on "Repentance" last night Billy upbraided the "mild phrasing of the day. 'A man's a thief,' he said, 'not a kleptomaniac. A liar, not a prevaricator. He does not commit 'affinity.'"

Billy said he didn't believe much in deathbed repentances. The thief on the cross was the only one he was sure of.

He advised all his hearers to repent "on a spot cash system—right away, whenever you do wrong. Take your stand for Christ; get up out of the devil's subway and climb to God's roof garden."

After the meeting a Bowery delegation, headed by Jimmie Kelley, former gang leader, asked Bill to "come down and talk to the real run hounds some night." The revivalist will preach his booze sermon late some night, soon at a hall which Jimmie and the "run hounds" will engage.—[New York World.]

NO FLIMSY EXCUSES GO

Don't Hide Behind Petticoats or Children in Trying to Evade Draft.

Washington, D. C.—"Do not hide behind petticoats or children to avoid service in the new national army," is the injunction of Provost Marshal General Crowder in an official guide he has issued to show how questions put to those who register on June 5 should be answered.

The guide explains that there is no desire by the government to draft anyone who is the sole support of any man, woman or child, but points out that "unless the person you have in mind is solely dependent on you," exemption would not be granted.

The registrar will drop permanently from the list those whose physical defects, such as absence of a leg or an arm, make unfitness for service obvious, but all other claims for exemption will be passed upon by the local boards. The applicant will be required to state specifically the character of the work he is performing in order that the board may judge if it is such as to warrant the government in excusing him from army duty.

"If you are a felon or otherwise morally delinquent and desire to claim exemption on that ground, state your ground briefly," says the guide.

The difference between a "natural born" citizen and a naturalized citizen is explained carefully, and it is pointed out that even alien enemies within the age limit will be required to register, although they will not be drafted.

CONSPIRACY AGAINST U. S. DISCOVERED

The most stupendous conspiracy probably ever hatched, according to the San Angelo (Tex.) Standard, has been unearthed in West Texas, and involves five thousand farmers. A widespread plan which includes the resisting of conscription by force, the destruction of government property and the liberating of all persons held upon charges of conspiracy by resorting to acts of violence, if necessary, was the basis of indictments returned by the federal grand jury in San Angelo against eight residents of Snyder, Tex. The plot is considered the most treasonable hatched since the war broke out in Europe, and if carried into effect would have threatened every home in the nation. The men arrested were allowed bond in the sum of $1,000 each. The plot was unearthed by government secret service men.

"I KNOW EVERYTHING BUT MYSELF."

There was a great man died a number of years ago who looked about those by his bedside counting his passing hours and remarked, "I know everything but myself."

This thought has penetrated through the corridors of time.

How many of us think we know everything and how few of us realize how little we know about ourselves.

It is a strange thing that we are granted a mental understanding in one respect and lack in utter ignorance in others.

The man living on one side of the street will sit on his porch on a summer afternoon and tell his wife the mistakes his neighbor, across the way, is making in the rearing of his children, and his wife not knowing what else to do agrees with him.

That man knows everything in his pregnant imagination, except himself. He does not realize his own short comings. He sees only those of his neighbors.

In his supreme belief of his own ability he sits on a pedestal and sees the fault of others and loves to point them out.

This man does not understand himself. If he did he would realize the lines of dear old Bobby Burns to the effect, if we could see ourselves as others see us.

But we cannot. The germ of egoism kindles with growing age. We can see and point out the faults in others. We are blind to the faults which are potentially exposed in ourselves.

We walk along the street obsessed with the conviction that there are flagrant faults in our closest friends, in our immediate family and among our relatives.

Do we pause to think for a moment that there may be faults of our own that require correcting.

Be generous. The man who thinks that he is the cock of the walk is a fool. There are none emaculate. We all have faults.—[Commercial Appeal.]

RUNS AUTO WITH COAL OIL.

New Attachment That Provides Cheaper Power.

W. H. Maddox, of Jackson, Ga., passed through Cadiz Tuesday in a Ford automobile run by coal oil, with an invention by the Kerosene Attachment Co., of Jackson, Ga. He has bought the State right of Missouri and was enroute to that State to "show" the natives. Mr. Maddox claims that it gives double the mileage per gallon at half the cost of gasoline. It can be attached to any Ford.—[Cadiz Record.]

Our guess is that it is awful to pay an income tax, but fine to owe it.

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

CORRESPONDENTS

We must impress upon our correspondents the importance of getting their communications in The Herald office by Monday, at the latest, to insure publication in the issue of Wednesday following. We want the news when it is news, and unless letters are in by Monday, communications have to be held over to the next week and then the news is stale. So, if you please, get your letters mailed so they will reach us by Monday.
